RCU Names Employee Services Specialist

Eau Claire, WI – RCU has named Barb Langreck as an Employee Services Specialist. Barb is responsible for assisting employees and supervisors with issues involving employees and the workplace. This includes providing performance management consulting services, ensuring legal compliance by implementing applicable employment laws, interpreting and developing policies and procedures, recruiting, selection, and orientation of new employees, and answering questions.

Barb comes to RCU with over eight years of human resources experience. She worked at Dove Healthcare as the Human Resource Manager from April 2002 through July 2009.

Barb received her Bachelor of Science degree from UW-Eau Claire in Business Administration with an emphasis in Human Resources. She also obtained her PHR (Professional in Human Resources) certification in 2004.

Barb serves on the Board of Directors for the Chippewa Valley Society of Human Resource Management as the Director of Public Relations and Marketing. She lives in Eau Claire with her husband and two daughters.
